1. On July 10, 1947, Comrade John R. Grate, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, published his General Order 4. In it, he reminded his Departments that the Allied Orders should be arranged in official programs in the following manner:

Auxiliary to Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War.

2. In keeping with the Grand Army's traditions and wishes, we should be especially sensitive to this protocol when planning events involving other members of the Allied Orders.

Stephen A. Michaels
Commander-in-Chief
