ANNUAL LINCOLN DAY PROGRAM

Submitted by Alan Teller

It was an unexpectedly beautiful day in Southwestern Indiana. Quite a relief from the temperatures of around zero we experienced in Northern Indiana over the last two weeks. It was partly sunny and the temperature reached into the high 30's. This was Sunday, February 11, 2007. The Lincoln Boyhood National Memorial was having their annual Lincoln Day Program. The Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War (SUVCW), Sons of Veteran Reserve (SRS), and the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War 1861-1865 (DUVCW) were all present and participated. Thirteen SUVCW members representing four Camps were present along with one DUVCW member. The four Camps were Somers Camp #1, Champion Hill Camp #17, Ben Harrison Camp #356, and Porter Camp #116. Ten of SUVCW members were also member of the SVR. Four members, 1st Lt. Alan Teller, 2nd Sgt. Larry Myer, Cpl. Dennis Hutchinson, and Pvt. Cody Shaw, of the SVR presented and retired the colors. They were fifed and drummed in by SVR members Erick Fricke and Rick McConnell. "The Company Singers" sang three numbers for the program in the Abraham Lincoln Hall, and two selections at the graveside eulogy. "The Company Singers" performing this day were Gib Young, Rich McConnell, Don Morgan, James Kline, Jack Shaw, Erick Fricke, and Gary Bugge. Somers Camp Commander, Matt Elkin, was in attendance with his son, Nathanael; as was Champion Hill's Camp Commander Archie Lintz. Please note Jack Shaw, mentioned above, is the Camp Commander of Porter Camp. DUVCW Department President, Lee Ann Teller, was introduced at the program.

The SVR and SUVCW led the procession with colors flying to the grave site of Nancy Hanks Lincoln. The eulogy and wreath laying took place at the grave site. A wreath for the DUVCW Department of Indiana was placed on the grave by Lee Ann Teller. A single red rose was placed at the base of Nancy Hanks Lincoln's headstone by Archie Lintz for Champion Hill Camp.

I would be remiss without mentioning the program, presented by Gary Kersey, about Peter Gilner of 62nd Pennsylvania Infantry "Alive by Accident". He was an outstanding speaker and kept you on the edge of your seat. The story was twisted and involved Meade's chase of Lee after the Battle of Gettysburg; a drunken event outside the Union lines; a court martial; a sentence of firing squad; the Dry Tortugas; a mother visiting the President; Abraham Lincoln's personal involvement—twice; re-enlistment; and a 50 year pension controversy. One, and only one, unnamed member nodded off briefly. He was awakened and the audience startled when an unspecified object he was holding fell into the aisle. -----Attention!

SPECIAL duv PROJECT

Submitted by Alan Teller

SUVCW members should read this article from the DUVCW and decide if they would like to participate and help our soldiers in Iraq along with the DUVCW. Actually their duvs, pronounced doves, are doing the project. The duvs are their equivalent of our Junior Members. I think the article is pretty clear. Just bring your money or items to the June 2, 2007 Encampment and give your donation to the DUVCW.

“Our Department project last year, to send care packages to deployed soldiers, was such a success; and the items were truly appreciated. We would like to do it again this year. With shipping costs and donated items, it was well over $500.00. My son has two Army National Guard fellows stationed in Ramadi, Iraq. I have been in touch with one of them. He said any goodies from home would be really appreciated. The number one important thing is phone cards. The only phone cards that work over there are AT&T Global. I can order 100-minute cards for $10.00 each from a military internet site. Other items would include beef jerky, Slim Jims, pop tarts, etc. Any items such as deodorant, toothpaste, hand lotion, shampoo, etc, should be travel size. If you donate money, please bring a check to the Department Encampment June 2nd at IUK, or send it to Vickie Day, 0202 CR 36, Avilla, IN 46710. In the memo area mark it “duv special project”.

NEW CAMP FLAG

Champion Hill newsletter

“Brother Young reports that the new camp national flag has arrived. It is on a six foot pole – expandable to nine foot. It is gold fringed, has a gold tassel, and eagle top. The flag belongs to the camp and is for use at activities outside the GAR room such as the Memorial Day services.”

MEMORIAL DAY 2007

Champion Hill newsletter

“There is a lot of work to do but Senior Vice Commander Fricke along with Brothers Keith Stroud, Gib Young, and Camp Commander Archie Lintz have verified the authenticity of Sgt. Wm. Baumgarner of the 4th West Virginia Inf. as a legitimate Medal of Honor Winner. The camp has contacted the cemetery trustees and a new headstone has arrived to be put on the hero’s grave at the May ceremony. We may change the day of the event to accommodate more people and hope that we will get relatives, officials, Wells County Historical Society members, as well as Liberty Center people to take part in honoring this soldier of the Republic.”

Camp Commander Ray Moak and Camp Secretary Dennis Rigsby represented Benton camp by traveling to attend the opening of the U.S.S. Monitor Exhibit at the Mariners' Museum at Newport News, VA from March 9-11, 2007.

This new exhibit displays artifacts recovered from the wreck of the Union "Ironclad" U.S.S. Monitor. Among the more interesting artifacts recovered are the ship's anchor, turret, steam engine, propeller and great guns. Numerous other items (clothing, shoes, lanterns and glassware) were also recovered and are on display. The remains of several of the U.S.S. Monitor's crew were also discovered in the turret and as yet have not been identified.

William P. Benton Camp #28 was proud to be able to participate with other "Naval Re-enactors" from around the country in honoring these veterans and sharing the patriotic experience of being able to view these artifacts from one of the most celebrated battles in the American Civil War! Huzzah!

ANCESTOR INFORMATION

(This new section will appear in The Indiana Legion as space is available.)

Submitted by Timothy P. Reese, PCC/svc, Camp Abraham Lincoln #10, Department of California & Pacific

ISAAC D. ROBBINS was born, the youngest of five children, in Manchester, Dearborn County, Indiana on March 7, 1843. On August 6, 1861 he enlisted into the Union Army in Manchester, and on August 30, he was mustered as a private into Company K of the 26th Indiana Infantry in Indianapolis. He saw various garrison and occupation duties and several skirmishes during Schofield's campaign. Isaac saw serious battle action on December 7, 1862, when he and his comrades entered the Battle of Prairie Grove, which was followed by the sacking of Van Buren, both in Arkansas. On June 3, the 26th Indiana traveled on the S.S. Hannibal, a side-wheel steamer, down the Mississippi River to Young's Point, Louisiana and crossed to take places at the Western lines of Vicksburg Siege, which ended as a Union victory on July 4. They were later transported by another side-wheel steamer, the S.S. Arago, to a Union camp just outside of Port Hudson, Louisiana. In September, the 26th Indiana, the 19th Iowa Infantry, and two Artillery pieces were ordered to advance through Morganza and Bayou Fordoche. On September 29, Isaac, 65% of his 26th Indiana comrades and a major portion of the 19th Iowa were captured at Stirlings Plantation, Louisiana. They were marched to Camp Ford, CSA Prison in Tyler, Texas, where he witnessed the harshness of prison life. He witnessed the murder in broad daylight of one of his comrades, Private Thomas Moorehead, and another man, who were given the order to turn back from a woodpile. At other times, potential riots nearly broke out. In early January 1864, Isaac and other comrades were told they were granted paroles and marched to Shreveport. The paroles were denied and they were ordered to march back to Camp Ford. Along the way back, Isaac broke away from the march (and according to family stories), he gorged himself on tomatoes in a field just outside of Union occupied Lakes End. He was transported seriously ill to New Orleans USA General Hospital on February 14, where he remained until March. On July 12, he was reunited with the 26th Indiana. On July 22, the rest of the 26th Indiana were paroled and exchanged from Camp Ford. Isaac and most of his comrades mustered out in Indianapolis on September 21. On January 7, 1865, Isaac re-enlisted into Company G of the 146th Indiana Infantry. On March 3, he was given the rank of Sergeant. This regiment served mostly garrison and railway duty. Isaac was honorably discharged on August 31. He returned to Indiana and became a farmer. On December 1, 1870, he married Hester Ann Neal and they had four children. After the death of Hester, he married Florence Truce on June 7, 1905, and they had one son. Isaac died of stomach cancer on November 5, 1909 and is buried with his first wife at Cedar Hedge Cemetery in Randolph Township, Rising Sun, Ohio County, Indiana. After the Civil War, family stories handed down said that Isaac was plagued by chronic stomach pain, and it was said often that he would blame and claim, "IT WAS THOSE DAMN TOMATOES!!"

Submitted by Robert Neil "Bob" Hall, who joined the Ben Harrison camp in 1984

Hall's great-great grandfather was PRIVATE WILLIAM WASHINGTON "WASH" SHADOIN of Princeton, Kentucky. Shadoin enlisted on October 5, 1863 and mustered into Company I of the 48th Kentucky Infantry. He suffered a sunstroke and was discharged on December 15, 1864 at Bowling Green, Kentucky. Shadoin died on July 23, 1882 at Salem, Kentucky.

Hall's great-great-great grandfather was CORPORAL FLEMING CRITTENDEN "CRITT" GRESHAM of Hopkinsville, Kentucky. Gresham enlisted on October 15, 1861 at Hendersonville, Kentucky and was mustered into Company A of the 25th Kentucky Infantry. He was shot and killed on April 6, 1862 in the Battle of Shiloh at Pittsburg Landing, Tennessee.
